DAVID A. GWILT The Entertainer 4 the Ages

David provides a unique take on the aging experience, offering humor, personal stories, and a daily 'to do' list for maximizing life's possibilities. This child of the '60's is original and intuitive, blending an entertaining mix of life observations and personal experience.

David inspires people of all ages to pursue their passion in life and renew their sense of purpose on the planet. Audiences instinctively connect with his authenticity, genuine caring, and universal message.

Religious groups, senior living communities and some of the nation's leading organizations including AARP, Alzheimer's Association, the Parkinson's Association, and major universities have engaged David, the Entertainer 4 the Ages, to share his passion, wit, and warmth.
